Jesus Is My Constant

Since the November 3rd Presidential Election, prophets have prophesied that God would bring about miraculous situations where Truth would prevail, and President Trump would remain in office as the President of the United States. The enemy would be restrained and the nation would not undergo such drastic changes in power that threaten each American's liberty. After the election, the prophets continued to say these things would happen by Inauguration Day, but Inauguration Day has come and gone, yet President Biden and Vice President Harris were sworn into office. Questions emerged in people's minds such as, "Why did this happen?", and "When is this going to change?", and "When will God intervene?" It felt disappointing, yet the Lord is in control.

As I prayed throughout each day, the the Holy Spirit kept reminding me, over and over, "Jesus is your constant." It has played like a record in my mind, again and again. Needless to say, this piqued my curiosity, so I began to research what "constant" means and to see what the Word has to say about it.

I decided to Google "constant" and was reminded there are constants in Math where a constant is usually in an algebraic expression that includes a number that always remains the same. Likewise, there are constants in Physics, where the constant is a number that represents a property, relationship, or quantity that always remains the same under specific circumstances. The phrase that resonated in both examples was "...always remains the same". Next, I researched synonyms for constant. Some are: steadfast, perseverant, faithful, devoted. As I read these words, the Lord brought Bible verses to mind that reminded me that God is the God who sees me exactly where I am. Nothing is a surprise to Him, for He is "Eloi Roi". "You(Hagar)-Are-The-God-Who-Sees; for she said, 'Have I also here seen Him who sees me?’ (Genesis 16:13 NKJV).” Just knowing that Jesus sees me where I am has given me great comfort when I have felt overwhelmed, worried, or afraid. Jesus is faithful and promises to never leave or forsake us (1 John 1:9; 1 Corinthians 1:9, NKJV).

We live in unrehearsed times. There is much uncertainty every day, and we need to read the Word and pray in the Spirit for discernment and guidance (Romans 8:26-27, NKJV). Jesus is perseverant in His love for us, and He wants us to persevere in Him because we are seated in Christ and been given everything to finish well, to complete His plan for us and strengthen us day by day (Ephesians 1:3; 3:8, 16, NKJV). Even though I cannot see what is ahead on this journey of life, I know that He loves me and planned for me before I was ever created in my mother’s womb. God recorded all of my days in His book before I was ever born (Psalms 139:16-17, NKJV). It is so amazing that He could plan for each of us since before even time began.

The Lord has plans for each of us for our future (Jeremiah 29:11, NKJV). He has a steadfast love and faithfulness for us that will never come to an end (Psalms 117: 1-2, NKJV). The Lord is preparing us, step by step, for what lies ahead in the future with His Word, almost like bootcamp (2 Timothy 3:16-17, NKJV). We may not see His plan for us at the moment, but later when looking back, it will be evident, and we’ll see His hand in all of it. This has happened in my life The Lord is always faithful. He’s equipped us and placed everything in us needed for success. When we are weakest, He promises He will be our strength; He will be made perfect so that all glory and honor and power will be given to Him (1 Corinthians 12:10, NKJV).

I want to encourage each of us matter what happens in the government, in the country, or in the world, we need to keep our eyes on Jesus. No matter what. He is the author and perfecter of our faith (Hebrews 12:2, NKJV). He is the devoted lover of our souls who will never leave us or forsake us (Hebrews 13:5, NKJV). God knows exactly what is going on. He is not surprised or caught off guard. While we might be, our assignment is to remain faithful to Jesus and shine the light of Christ out for all the world to see. Let's show the world that Jesus is our constant.

Maranatha!!
